You made a real advance in composition in this course and in 201. You're now much more aware of the bottom of the page and the importance of leaving your images enough space to "rest on." Your stronger composition is going to pay off for you in all your future drawings and paintings. Great job, Keegan! Review Date: 2018-12-14	Studio exercises and projects in composition and gesture including male and female figure studies, self-portraiture, expressive mark-making, and working with light &amp; colour. You tried your best to keep up, Nyien, in spite of a language barrier and heavy commitments outside of school. If you had been able to attend more classes I could have given you a much higher mark.
